

Over 30 years:

We all know the story of the disciples feeding the multitudes with fish and a few loaves and how they were too busy working, that they did not even recognize the hand of God with them. There is a lesson to be learned, is that we too can be so busy doing the Fathers business that we do not see His handiwork or the Praise due His name?

In over three decades of preaching at sodomite parades nationwide, I am always surprised to hear a new street preacher that preached his first homo parade say "that we are the last days brother" or "this is just like Sodom and Gomorrah" and the famous "how much longer till the Lord comes?" if only I had a dollar for every time I have heard those words, I would be a very rich man today.

For decades these sodomite parades have been prancing in public, yet now they see it, or preach against it and it has now becomes official that it is the end is near?

How can they critic that, when they have nothing to measure it to? Why is it so common and acceptable to be so gray and gloomy and why are we so compulsive to speak of the end times, or to claim the Church is dead?

What I am about to testify, some of you might not compute because Obama is in office, we have liberal judges that promote the sodomite agenda, senators and governors that are pro homo, women still murdering their unborn babies, Churches that are lukewarm. But I've got some good news from the front line. Sit down, make sure your seat belt is locked, seat in the upright position and tray table is up.

Be of good cheer.

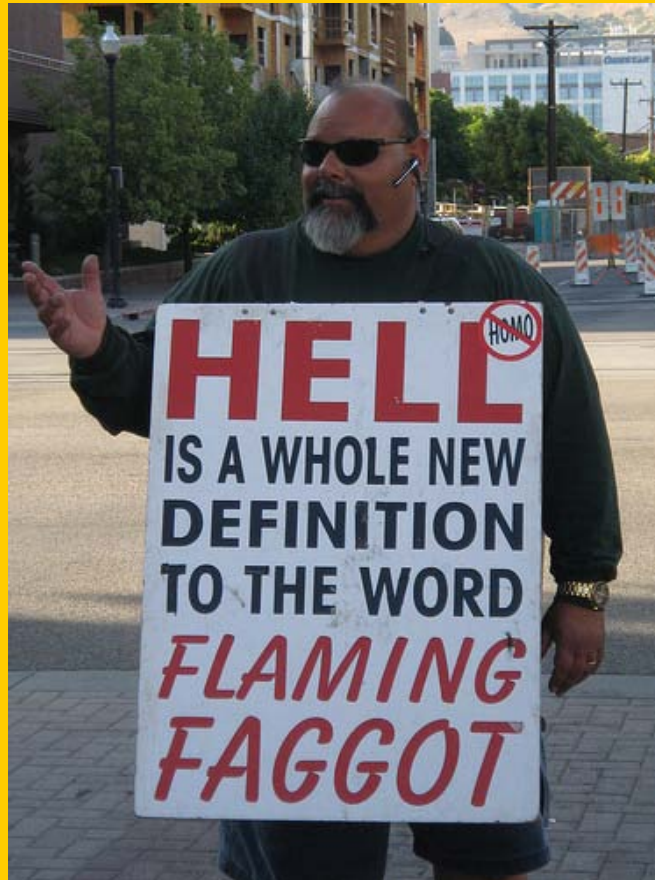

It is my conclusion in over 30 years of preaching these events coast to coast that these sodomite parades are dwindling in size every year. Ten years ago these parades lasted four to five hours long, non stop. Depending on the city, these parades today can be over in under an hour with large cavities between homo bands and dancing groups. There are exceptions of course, but compared to the eighties, these shame parades are smaller and not as sadistic. Today you will see more corporations, stores or dentists and politicians marching on the street than the obvious male dance floats. Don't get me wrong, I am not concluding that there will be no more sodomite parades, however progress must be noted. If it were not for all the large gaps within these pride parades some of the parades can be finished in less than an hour.

In the 1980's we had no police protection, we had no churches assisting us, we had no lawyers watching us and the homosexual community was very motivated after Stonewall. If we preached against it we knew that we would be coming home with bruises or worse after a sodomite parade. We counted the cost and walked into the sidewalk, hoping all we would lose that day would be a bull-horn or a broken banner. I think if street/campus type preachers today would have joined us back then, they might have walked away or never come out with us again. There is no pride parade today nationwide that can compare to the persecution we endured during the 1980's.

We would stand back to back preaching, holding our banner and pushing people away from us for hours if not all day. They would try to bite us, they would try to intimidate us to leave the route, banners were broken, we were thronged and it rained spit on us, then we had to walk to our vehicle. Those were the days, we were tried and waxed strong trusting in the Holy Ghost and your Brother watching your back. Rarely have we tasted of those days of old. I remember groups like "Act-Up" or "Queer Nation" would walk toward us dripping in (animal) blood, of holding a syringe and biting all while yelling at us and what police officer in his right mind would stop that? Keep in mind this was the early eighties and the threat of the AIDS Virus was not yet determined on how it was transmitted. But these groups like 'ACT-UP' and 'Queer Nation' have most likely died from AIDS. We would come to these parades with our own yellow rope and later we used our own yellow tape, just to keep the angry sodomites at bay.

Those were the days when one of the Brethren would carry a backpack with a first aid kit and a medical file with all of our personal records and a copy of our health insurance cards in case we were dragged in to the hospital. Today our adversary might be the pro-homo police officer that will cite you for something or threaten you will arrest if you do not move.

Reality Check from the WATCHTOWER

What some public preachers call suffering, I would not think it is worthy to write home about, or what the Church may call persecution today, it would not be a blip on the radar when compared to the early Church. What your street preacher of today might consider abusive, would have been chit chat in the eighties.

It is my testimony that the homosexual community has begun to implode.
Yes, you read right.

These people are dying with AIDS, filled with diseases, they cannot reproduce. The lesbians now want their own parades and even in some cities, we can find Black Only gay pride parades or Hispanic Only pride parades, as these people are never content in their sin. If a woman does not physically appeal to them, they lust after another man and within time these miserable souls long for other partners which only opens up the door to other avenues like teens, children, animals, paraphernalia and other unspeakable acts.

I say, give the God His due praise. The parades are getting smaller as they are loving each other to death but the war is far from over in our nation.

Do I think that sodomy will cease in America? No, I understand that they have taken their fight to another level. They have gained entrance with some religious denominations, they have taken the fight to our courts, to our politicians, to our schools, universities and even the institution of marriage. They have opened up a new front line with the movie and television industry, they have invested much time with the news and the internet. They are fighting for same sex marriage nationwide and in California they have tried to have the courts override the will of the people with proposition 8 not once but twice.

California voted in favor of the traditional male female marriage.

That within itself speaks volumes.

As leftist, as liberal, as socialist, as anti-Christ as California is, they voted 'NO' to same sex marriage. Churches have allowed homosexuals to be bishops and sodomite ministers to speak from the pulpits, yet the State of California has better standards than some of these Churches. Go figure?

In California the sodomite community was upset with the African Americans that voted YES on Prop 8, because the homosexuals felt they were fighting the same fight as the blacks did in the 60's and felt their pain.

This is the very REASON the sodomites resist the ballot box and take their agenda to the courts, for the courts have been more favorable towards their agenda and the courts can overturn democracy as in Prop 8.

America today refuses to recognize same sex marriage compared to the rest of the free world, we still have free speech in America to publicly oppose the sin of sodomy, unlike Canada, England and all Europe. Try rebuking homosexuals outside the United States or carry a banner against such sin and you will be arrested on the spot. Do not get me wrong, we will one day lose those rights and freedoms we hold dear, but it is not yet that day. So I say work while it is still light. Laws regarding 'Hate Speech' it will come one day and I will thank God I had the opportunity to rebuke that sin in public and did so.

I only write this to keep any chicken little type Christians that believe the sky is falling because they preached at a few local pride parades and think the apocalypse is at hand, when in fact nothing is further from the truth

Homosexual parades are getting smaller and a few cites no longer have them, this is not second hand information, this is not speculation, this is not what I read in a book, website or blog. This is not taken from a poll nor is it a research department from Cornell University. This is personal testimony from over three decades of standing on the sidewalk preaching against homosexual events from coast to coast. These people are worthy of death as per Romans chapter 1 and by this lifestyle they are a dying breed, killing each other with diseases. Most of those sodomites we preached at in the 1980's have since died and are burning in hellfire.

I will continue to warn the wicked of their wicked way and the proud before they reap destruction as God has used me for over 30 years to deliver such a message. And if the wicked is offended or the lukewarm religious get hurt and I annoy, or anger the current culture. To them I say, who cares. For I wish not TO OFFEND A HOLY GOD and His standard.

In Romans chapter One the apostle Paul writes regarding the sin of sodomy:

"For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men.....

God also gave them up to uncleanness through the lusts of their own hearts, to dishonour their own bodies between themselves.....

For this cause God gave them up unto vile affections.....

leaving the natural use of the woman, burned in their lust one toward another.....

men with men working that which is unseemly, and receiving in themselves that recompence of their error which was meet.....

God gave them over to a reprobate mind.....

Being filled with all unrighteousness, fornication, wickedness.....

haters of God, despiteful, proud.....

inventors of evil things.....

without natural affection.....

that they which commit such things are worthy of death"

NOTHING ABOUT LAST DAYS HERE AND IF THIS IS NOT YOUR MESSAGE TO THE HOMOSEXUAL COMMUNITY THEN YOU ARE NOT PROCLAIMING A BIBLICAL INSPIRED MESSAGE, BUT SPEAKING FROM YOUR OWN HEART.
